International Day of Women and Girls in Science

This year ICAC has reinforced its commitment to the International Day of Women and Girls in Science, which it already held in 2018 with different events.

ICAC's Equality Committee has organized different dissemination talks and has joined the initiative of the Dissemination Association of Camp de Tarragona.

Meeting with scientists from Tarragona

An ICAC researcher participates in one of the Meetings with scientists from Tarragona, organized by the Dissemination Association of Camp de Tarragona on the occasion of 11 February celebration (program).

> On Monday, February 11, at 12 noon in the Aula Magna of the Campus Catalunya at the URV. With the participation of the scientists: María José Figueras (rector of the URV), Anna Gutiérrez (ICAC), Sonia Fernández (IISPV) and Sílvia de Lamo (URV). Facilitator: Toni Pérez-Portabella.

Dissemination talks in secondary education schools

The talks organized by the ICAC will be held by the researchers Lídia Colominas and Maite Salagaray.

- Archaeology and inequalities, by Lídia Colominas. Wednesday, February 6, IES Josep Tapiró (Reus).
- The secret of Dr Barry, a cargo de Maite Salagaray. Monday, February 11, IES Sant Pere i Sant Pau (Tarragona).

Contingut extret de la web de l'ICAC (www.icac.cat)

On December 15, 2015, the General Assembly of the United Nations proclaimed February 11 as the International Day of Women and Girls in Science.

> «On this International Day, I urge you to make a commitment to end prejudice, to invest more in STEM education for all women and girls, and to offer them opportunities to improve their career prospects and their longer-term professional development, so that all people can benefit from their innovative contributions in the future».— Secretary-General, António Guterres

Contingut extret de la web de l'ICAC (www.icac.cat)