Open Call for Senior Technician linked to the Archaeometry Studies Unit (UEA)

The Catalan Institute of Classical Archaeology opens a call for a part-time senior technician position, linked to the Archaeometry Studies Unit (UEA).

Within the framework of the Archaeometric Studies Programme, the ICAC has the Archaeometric Studies Unit (UEA), to carry out different projects and studies in which it applies analytical techniques to inorganic archaeological materials (with special emphasis on marmora materials, ornamental or construction) to provide an archaeological key interpretation of the results.

For this purpose, and according to the current regulations, the ICAC director has approved (in this Resolution) the call for an indefinite part-time job position linked to the Archaeometric Studies Unit (UEA) (call code 017.123).
